HANGING ON Jeffrey Kranebitter, a 10th-grader, and Ari Isaacs, a ninth-grader at The Jemicy School, ride their entry, Revelation, in the 10th annual 2008 Baltimore Kinetic Sculpture Race sponsored by the American Visionary Art Museum in Baltimore. The two boys managed the 15-mile race course in their vehicle that became increasingly decrepit until it had only one of its four pedals left. The vehicle was so broken down, Kranebitter had to sit on the pontoon for the last five miles. Revelation, along with two other entry vehicles from Jemicy, The Sneaky Moose and Viscar Boot Attempt #3, won the race's Spirit of the Glorious Founder award.
